

Sustain me: contemporary design

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN AT IVAN DOUGHERTY GALLERY

WHEN

30 July – 22 August 2009

WHERE

Ivan Dougherty Gallery
College of Fine Arts
Cnr Selwyn & Albion Streets,
Paddington, Sydney, NSW, 2021

COST

Free and open to the public

Comprising textiles, ceramics, jewellery, furniture and graphics, Sustain me: contemporary design presents works by more than a dozen international and Australian designers whose practices create and deepen understandings of sustainability.

CURATORS Rod Bamford and Liz Williamson

CURATORIAL ASSISTANT Kate Daniel

EXHIBITORS Luisa Cevese: RIEDIZIONI, Anna Lise De Lorenzo, Lisa Gasparotto, Rebecca Green, Green Life 21 Project: designs by Yoshikazu Hasegawa and Prue Venables,

Nancy Walinyinawuy Guyula, Steven Harrison, Instyle Contract Textiles, Andrew Maynard Architects, Julie Paterson: clothfabric, Elliot Rich, David Trubridge and Mark Vaarwerk

Sustain me: contemporary design is part of Sydney Design 09

OPENING To be opened on Thursday 30 July 6 – 8 pm by Steven Pozel, Director, Object: Australian Centre for Craft and Design

LECTURE David Trubridge: Cultural Design, Saturday 1 August, 12 noon, at the College of Fine Arts, UNSW, Lecture Theatre EG02

IMAGE David Trubridge, Kete Tuauri – The Basket of Rational Knowledge (One of The Three Baskets of Knowledge set), 2009
CNC cut aluminium sheet, hand-sanded PETG plastic, aluminium rivets, 5W LED light
2100 mm high, 850 mm diameter
Photograph Peter Tang Courtesy David Trubridge