Extra/Ordinary Cities is a dynamic forum examining the relationship between art, politics and the built environment in Asia and Australia. Travelling from Sydney's eastern suburbs to the city's southwest, this all day event, centred at the Bach Dang Vietnamese Restaurant in Canley Vale / Cabramatta, brings together leading international artists, architects and writers for a series of presentations and discussion panels, culminating with a reception at the Concrete Culture exhibition at the Ivan Dougherty Gallery / Centre for Contemporary Art and Politics, UNSW.

Participants include: Ou Ning (Beijing / Shanghai / Guangzhou), Neville Mars (Beijing), Map Office (Hong Kong), Ruangrupa: Ade Darmawan & Reza Afisina (Jakarta), Michael Rakowitz (New York), Rene Gabri and Ayreen Anastas (New York), Richard Goodwin (Sydney), Alfredo & Isabel Aquilizan (Philippines/Brisbane), SquatSpace (Sydney), Shakthidharan (Sydney), Manray Hsu (Taipei) and other Biennale of Sydney artists.
