

CONTINUUM

NAS 60 — AMC 80

You are invited to the opening of an exhibition of work by past students, of the National Art School and Alexander Mackie College of Advanced Education

The exhibition will be officially opened by Bruce Beresford, Film Writer/Director at 6.00 p.m. on Tuesday, 16th June, 1981 to mark the occupation of the new premises of the Ivan Dougherty Gallery in Paddington

The artists represented have been selected by John Coburn, prominent Australian artist and former Head of the National Art School.

The twenty years from 1960 to 1980 saw significant changes and developments in artist education and the transfer of diploma courses from the National Art School to Alexander Mackie College when it became a college of advanced education in 1975.

The exhibition will close on Friday, 3rd July, 1981.
