

UNAUTHORISED ACCESS

NOT THE NSW PLAN

All 214 social housing properties in Millers Point and The Rocks to be sold for an estimated $500 million. 489 tenants will be evicted.

All 79 apartments in Sirius also to be sold despite having no major maintenance issues. 101 tenants will be evicted port operation control tower to be demolished and replaced by commemorative hole.

hollow headland with 20,000 sq.m of mystery 'cultural facility' and/or car parking buried underground

THE HUNGRY MILE (Barangaroo)

143,00 sq.m of residential and 28,000 sq. m of retail

Jamie Packer's 'unsolicited proposal' 77,500 sq.m hotel and casino. Packer will pay NSW gov. $250 million for his casino licence and guarantees $1 billion in gaming tax revenue over the next 20 years

330,000 sq.m of commercial space designed specifically for large 'financial services' firms

DO YOU HAVE A BETTER IDEA FOR WHAT COULD HAPPEN HERE?

SEND US YOUR UNSOLICITED PROPOSAL NOW!

GOT A BETTER IDEA FOR MILLERS POINT?

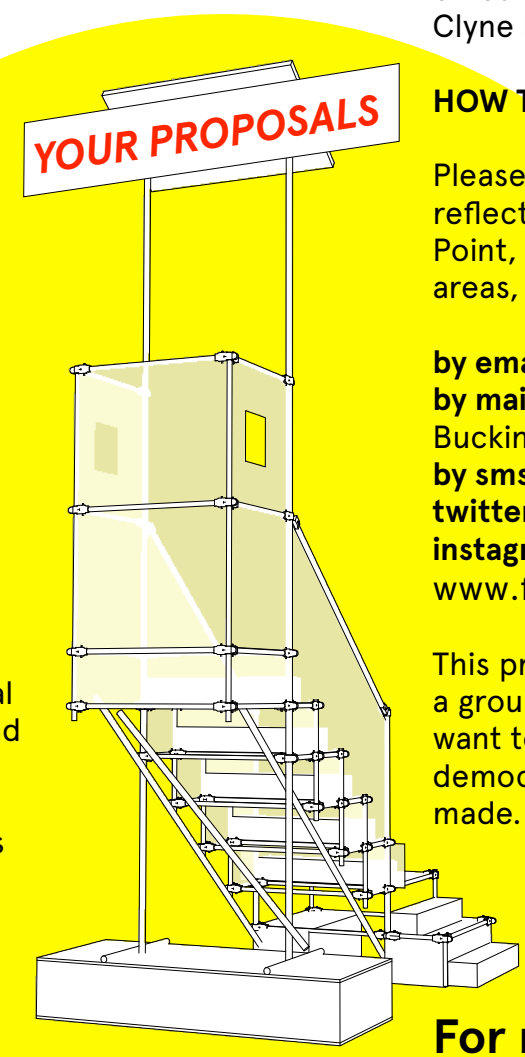

Clyne Reserve lies at the boundary of the two most contentious developments in Sydney. To the east, the social and affordable housing of Millers Point are being cleared for sale. To the west Barangaroo's hollow headland park has risen to meet them, closely followed by the office towers and an 'unsolicited' casino.

These two vastly different but intimately connected developments raise significant questions about development in our city:

In whose interest is this happening?
Who gets to say how our city is made/unmade?

The temporary barricades which are erected around construction sites across the city are a physical manifestation of the obscurity and exclusivity of city making in Sydney. Scaffolding, plywood hoardings, plastic scrim and signs declaring NO UNAUTHORISED ACCESS.

In reaction to this we want to make a space which supports UNAUTHORISED ACCESS to discuss and debate these developments. A space which invites people in rather than keeps them out. A space to ask questions and imagine other possibilities. A space to create 'unsolicited proposals' of our own.

We want your ideas to be heard.

We want to know what you think should happen to Millers Point, Barangaroo and the surrounding areas. Your proposal, along with all the others will be publicly displayed on our purpose built structure in Clyne Reserve from May 16th.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED:

Please send a one-line proposal, idea, reflection or suggestion for Millers Point, Barangaroo and surrounding areas, maximum 70 characters.

by email: info@thelot.net.au
by mail: The Lot, 104, 53-59 Great Buckingham St, Redfern, 2016
by sms: 0467 954 236
twitter: @with_the_lot
instagram: #unauthorisedaccess
www.facebook.com/LOT.projects

This project is presented by The Lot, a group of artists and architects who want to create more open and democratic ways for the city to be made.

For more information or submit your proposal in person come to the project opening:

Clyne Reserve, Saturday May 16th, 3pm.